

ANGELA CHAN

FOR SOCIAL OFFICER

WHY SOCIAL OFFICER?

I am committed to ensuring that ICPASS is a platform for imperial students to create positive social impact and raise awareness on pressing social issues.

With my experience organising events and managing social media accounts, I believe that I am the right fit for this position.

EXPERIENCE

Co-captained school debate team

- Organised inter-school spars and weekly internal spars, also led team to finals in national competitions and achieved Best Speaker Awards

Vice-president of MUN club

- Co-led team in national conferences and trained juniors during biweekly simulation rounds, also won national awards

Managing editor of Inter-school magazine (ISSIA)

- Co-led team of 30+ editors and published 4 editions of magazine publications

WHY ME?

- Has experience hosting social events (e.g. SS Lunar New Year Board Games Night)
- Familiar with managing social media accounts and websites.
- Diligent, responsible and a clear communicator.

NOMINATOR

Hayden Ng

SECONDER

Anastasia Yu
Kingson Ng

GOALS

Collaborations with other cultural societies for internal socials

- Collaborate with Malaysian Society and Singapore Society for Christmas socials
- Organise inter-university socials for Lunar New Year Board Games night

Improve engagement on social media

- More frequent posting on stories and reels to boost engagement
- Reaching out early to incoming freshers to improve membership and retention
- Collaborative posts with other PASS London universities

Broaden member's network

- Expand number of sponsors and tech companies for career talks